The Presbyterian Church at Fincastle, Virginia, whose congregation dates to 1763, is a continuation of the Sinking Spring and Spreading Spring congregations formed prior to 1760 and the Mt. Union congregation organized in 1832. The original building was erected in 1771 for the established Church of England in Botetourt County. Presbyterians have worshipped here continuously since the Revolutionary War.

Welcome and Announcements:

Opening Prayer: On this holy night, O Lord, we gather to ask your blessing. Thank you for the provision of this food and those who have had a hand in its preparation. May it nourish holy communion with you and one another as we share together at the table and remember your love for us in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord of all creation. Amen.

Hymn: # 776 “Let Us Break Bread Together” (vs. 1&2)

Minister: When it was evening, Jesus took his place with His disciples, and while they were eating, he said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me.”

People: Who? Who will betray you? They all wondered. Surely not me. Tell us who, Jesus.

Minister: “The one who dips his hand into the dish with me.”

People: But that’s all of us. We will all share this common meal.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion:

Invitation to the Congregation

Minister: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Minister: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Minister: Give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
