A Message from David—An Easter Reflection

Even though Easter Sunday falls within the Spring season of the year, the church's celebration of Easter is more than our celebration of the wonders of springtime: the beauty of nature reborn, the pleasures of spring wardrobes, and the profound joys of outdoor activities in the warmth of the sun. In our celebration of Easter, the church bears witness to the Good News of the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead into the life everlasting.

The Resurrection of Christ is unlike anything in nature. The Resurrection is not like a butterfly emerging from a cocoon (or chrysalis). It is not like a flowering crocus emerging from the soil after a long winter. And it is certainly not like us winter-weary humans exchanging our winter coats for light and airy spring attire. All such signs of spring are wonderful, refreshing, even fun; but they are not the Easter event of Christ's Resurrection.

In his book, "Basic Christian Doctrine", (p. 143) Dr. John H. Leith says this about the meaning of Easter and the Resurrection: "The resurrection is an answer to the problem of historical evil. On Good Friday a good man named Jesus was put to death by a Roman governor named Pilate, by Caiaphas the priest, and by howling, senseless demonstrators in the streets. On Good Friday evening it appeared as though the Pilates, the Caiaphases, and the demonstrators in the streets represented reality. On Good Friday one could only wish that the world had such a structure that it supported the life of a good person such as Jesus. And therefore the disciples were in despair. They went back "to the real world", to their fishing boats. But God raised Jesus Christ from the dead on Easter morning, undoing what wicked and evil persons had done on Good Friday. The "real world" is the resurrection of Jesus Christ."

This Easter please feel free to enjoy the wonders of springtime: nature reborn, a change of our wardrobes, and our return to the out-of-doors. Such things can "release life" in countless joyful ways. However, the greatest release and renewal of our lives will come when we can embrace in faith the Good News of the Resurrection: that on that first Easter morning God raised Jesus from the dead into the eternal life, and so defeated both our sin and death. Now, at last, through faith, we can live free, free from both the slavery of sin and the fear of death. At last we can live as God intended for us to live: in the fullness of life in this world, and in the hope of eternal life in the world that is to come.

Happy Easter! Amen

A Message from David and Worship Committee — Thinking Ahead

As a reasonably hopeful light is beginning to appear at the end of this long “pandemic” tunnel (wide spread vaccinations), I thought it might be good for us as a congregation to give some thought to future worship services and service projects in and around our church.

“In-person” worship is still out there in the future somewhere, but it is drawing closer than it once was! So, for the time being, do you have any suggestions for improving our “live-streaming” “virtual” worship services? How is the sound quality, the picture quality? (No “zingers” about my bald head or gray beard, please!) Seriously, though, are there practical things that we can do to make the “live-streaming” of our worship service more pleasant and beneficial to you, while you are participating in worship from your home?

How about committee meetings? Have you been able to utilize “zoom” meetings effectively? Have phone visitations by our elders and your pastor been of help to you? How can we improve?

Are there work/maintenance projects around the church buildings and grounds that we volunteers can do (and need to do) even though we still need to wear our masks and remain socially distanced? (All CDC and state covid-19 restrictions will be followed until they are modified or lifted.)

I know this past year has been an unprecedented challenge, physically, emotionally, and spiritually for all of us. Wearing masks and social distancing are not natural things to do for us social creatures. Still, both mask wearing and social distancing have played major roles in keeping all of us safer and healthier, and for that, I am eternally grateful. Please give thought to the questions that I raised in this article so that our worship service to the Lord can be made stronger and more faithful, even as we wait faithfully for that day when we can worship and serve “in-person” with one another in Christ.

Please send comments (suggestions for improving the worship service or what you really like about the service) to David (davidadickerson4@gmail.com) or Lynne Bolton, Chairman of the worship committee (lbolton5115@gmail.com) Thanks for your input.

Peace in Christ,

David
