The Presbyterian Church at Fincastle, Virginia, whose congregation dates to 1763, is a continuation of the Sinking Spring and Spreading Spring congregations formed prior to 1760 and the Mt. Union congregation organized in 1832. The original building was erected in 1771 for the established Church of England in Botetourt County. Presbyterians have worshipped here continuously since the Revolutionary War.

All: Let us admit our sin before God.

Prayer of Confession:

Scripture:

Proverbs 4:1-4, Psalm 103:13

¹Hear, O sons, a father's instruction, and be attentive, that you may gain insight; ²for I give you good precepts: do not forsake my teaching. ³When I was a son with my father, tender, the only one in the sight of my mother, ⁴he taught me, and said to me, "Let your heart hold fast my words; keep my commandments, and live;

¹³As a father pities his children, so the Lord pities those who fear him.

Ephesians 5:25-33, Ephesians 6:4

²⁵Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, ²⁶that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, ²⁷that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. ²⁸Even so husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. ²⁹For no man ever hates his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, as Christ does the church, ³⁰because we are members of his body. ³¹"For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." ³²This mystery is a profound one, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church; ³³however, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

⁴Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Hymns:

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

1 Come, Thou Fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace; streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise. Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above; praise his name--I'm fixed upon it--name of God's redeeming love.
2 Here I raise my Ebenezer, hither by thy help I've come; and I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home. Jesus sought me when a stranger, wandering from the fold of God; he, to rescue me from danger, bought me with his precious blood.
3 O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be! Let thy goodness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee: prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love; here's my heart, O, take and seal it; seal it for thy courts above.

Dear Lord and Father of Mankind

1 Dear Lord and Father of mankind, forgive our foolish ways! Reclothe us in our rightful mind; in purer lives thy service find, in deeper reverence, praise.
2 In simple trust like theirs who heard, beside the Syrian sea, the gracious calling of the Lord, let us, like them, without a word, rise up and follow thee.
3 O Sabbath rest by Galilee! O calm of hills above, where Jesus knelt to share with thee the silence of eternity, interpreted by love!
4 Drop thy still dews of quietness, till all our strivings cease; take from our souls the strain and stress, and let our ordered lives confess the beauty of thy peace.
5 Breathe through the heats of our desire thy coolness and thy balm; let sense be dumb, let flesh retire; speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire, O still, small voice of calm!

In Christ There Is No East or West

1 In Christ there is no east or west, in him no south or north, but one great fellowship of love throughout the whole wide earth.
2 In him shall true hearts everywhere their high communion find; his service is the golden cord close binding humankind.
3 Join hands, disciples of the faith, whate'er your race may be! Who serves my Father as his child is surely kin to me.
4 In Christ now meet both east and west; in him meet north and south; all Christly souls are one in him throughout the whole wide earth.
